Mr. Noble,
WRR Room

RECEIVED
JAN 10 1945

You will remember that this character who was interrogated by Rothschild and is, I understand, now being used, was sent by SKORZENY to Denmark at the very end of 1943. NAUJOCKS himself went to Denmark under the auspices of SKORZENY in March 1944.

Although the dates do not thus overlap, it seems to me possible that NEBEL might know something about NAUJOCKS. I enclose two spare photographs of the latter and would be grateful if you would ask that NAUJOCKS should be interrogated on this point. Presumably the Field have the requisite information about NAUJOCKS for this purpose.
